

When I started this process, I was asked to describe myself. I used the word Boujee. I like to have a luxurious lifestyle, but I still like to stay true and humble to myself. For Christmas, I asked to have an agent. All I want to do is entertain others. I enjoy making YouTube videos and acting in local plays.

I have the most fun being on stage acting for others. I can not explain the passion I have to become an actress. If I could make acting my career, I believe I would be so happy.
