DEAR TALENT SCOUTS, AGENTS AND MANAGERS,

I recently learned that I really enjoy making others laugh and entertaining. I want to make folks happy. I am very secure in my own presence. I am confident and proudly assert my acting "type," comedy and ironic humor, with natural delivery and I am not ashamed to make a fool of myself as long as it makes others laugh in the process. I'm an everyone's best friend type and a bit of an empath.

My body shape is "lovable-plushy" but due to my large size and height, those that don't know me are usually immediately intimidated and think that I could be a bully. That is until they hear me talk or get to know me. Then they immediately know I'm their new best friend. I turn away no one and am even friends with other kids that have a rough time. I try to help them through their situations and make good decisions. The teachers even pair me with kids that need extra help and support for this reason, as well.

My polite and reserved approach makes others think that I may not really "understand" what is happening or maybe I don't "get it," .... but I 100% do. I just ignore the negative stuff. I am highly academic with a ton of achievements. I love geology, astrology and Greek Mythology, especially. My mom says that I am the best kind of smart... I'm sneaky smart. It's like having my own superpower.

My favorite subjects are all the fun ones, of course... like recess and lunch but I excel in math, creative writing and science. Plus, I'm an all A student.

When it comes to acting, I take direction well and I aspire to be like my favorites Adam Sandler, Chris Farley and Jack Black.

I hope to find an agent and manager like you! I am patient and hardworking but need guidance to get my name out there and show me the ropes. I really look forward to working and learning from you.

I am so excited to start this journey. Let's go!

Thank you for taking the time to review my merit.

Sincerely,

Colin Mitchell "Mickey" Swicegood

PS.... don't tell anyone but my mom calls me Mickey and sings that one song "oh Mickey you're so fine" all the time. You can call me that too if you want.... It's kind of catchy, I guess.
