

Marlaina Bernadette Sheahan

I am Marlaina Bernadette Sheahan. I am nine and a half years old. I live in Waukesha, Wisconsin, with my married parents, my two brothers, my fifteen-year-old best kitty, Trooper, and a four-year-old water frog, Rose. I am the second pea in the pod, the only girl, stuck in the middle. I am a very well-balanced kid, I love to be silly, but I know when and how to be serious. I enjoy animals, arts and crafts, music, singing, Roblox, watching good shows, rugby, cheer, and doing cartwheels, as many as I can in a row, which is twelve so far. I attend a German Immersion school and am fluent in German.

I have always told my parents, "I want to be famous!" I love acting, being dramatic and funny, singing, fashion, modeling, and dancing. I am comfortable on stage and have enjoyed my dance recitals and choir performances. The entertainment industry intrigues me. I find it very rewarding to have opportunities to reach others through the arts. I think it is cool to be a role model for others like Taylor Swift, Sofia Carson, and Jennifer Lopez have been for me.
