Are you looking for a child actor/model:

- With a versatile look
- The skill of script memorization
- A passion for bringing characters to life
- The ability to take, process, and implement given directives

If so, look no further. Tanner is a seven-year-old that is dedicated to whatever she puts her mind to. As the youngest girl of a military family, she has lived in various locations. This has enabled her to be a part of various school and church productions, across the states. Tanner is an avid reader who loves bringing the characters that she reads about to life.

Thank you for your time and consideration. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Toni Prograis
