

Mila's journey to the creative arts and performance

I live to imagine and create. I wake up in the morning and I want to create and build. I love to read and my favorite types of books are graphic novels. I love graphic novels because I can draw and see the action. It's the best combination of writing and watching without actually watching. When there are characters that I admire, I want to be them, I want to recreate and be that character. It's almost as though the visual character I see and read become a part of me. Theater and acting allows me to express myself in ways that I normally can't
