I love to be the center of attention! I have a very active imagination, and I want to be able to use my creativity to bring characters to life. My favorite movies and TV shows are superhero-themed and I can see myself in a movie like Spiderman, or in a TV show like Flash. Voicing a character in an anime like One Piece, or a cartoon like Star vs. the Forces of Evil would be amazing! I practice voices on my mom, and I'm working on a British accent.

Modeling has recently made my radar. I love wearing clothes that draw attention, like the time I wore a suit and tie to chess camp, or my cat-themed Pajama Day ensemble, complete with a cat plushie in my hoodie pocket and a mini pillow hidden in my hood. My dad calls me a ham. I think modeling would be really fun, especially seeing my pictures in print. It could also be a really great stepping stone into the entertainment industry. Ultimately, I want to be famous!
