

Dear Manager,

We hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to introduce my daughter, Shanya Jindal, who has a profound passion for acting and is eager to pursue a career in this exciting industry. At her young age, she has already shown remarkable talent, dedication, and enthusiasm for the craft.

Shanaya has always been captivated by storytelling and performing. She has enjoyed playing different characters and bringing them to life with a level of emotion and authenticity that never fails to impress those around her. She showcases her unique blend of talent, innocence, cuteness and love for acting while performing/enacting scenes at home.

In addition to her natural talent and for her age, Shanaya has demonstrated an impressive ability to memorize lines quickly, adapt to different characters, and deliver performances that are both heartfelt and captivating. We would also like to add she was also selected for participation in IPOP auditions.

We believe that with the right guidance and opportunities, Shanaya has the potential to achieve great success in the acting world. She is excited to take on new challenges and is fully committed to pursuing a career in this industry. We are looking for a manager who can help her navigate this journey, provide valuable insights, and connect her with the right projects that will allow her to shine.

Thank you for considering Shanaya for representation. We would be thrilled to discuss her future in acting with you and explore how we can work together to achieve her goals. Please feel free to reach us at 4694271548 or swatijindal86@gmail.com to schedule a meeting or audition.

We look forward to the possibility of working with you and are excited about the future that lies ahead for Shanaya.

Sincerely,
Swati Jindal
