

LEXUS KELBEL

My name is Lexus Kelbel, and I am a 13-year-old female. My parents, siblings, and I reside in the little Wisconsin town named Viroqua. I am the youngest of four children and I have three fish, a gecko lizard, and six dogs.

I enjoy being able to express myself through acting and theatrics to inspire and captivate a range of audiences, which is why I want to work in entertainment industry. Being able to perform in front of an audience and take on a different character is a thrilling rush for me.
