

MADISON PAYNE

CHILD ACTOR

To whom it may concern,

I am Madison Payne, a 12-year-old who is passionate about the performing arts. I believe that my background in hip-hop and modern dancing, singing alto, facial expressions and video content creation, make me super unique and energetic when I perform.

My desire to be in the entertainment industry stems from my love of becoming different characters and expressing myself in lots of ways. Acting lets me bring my imagination to life and connect with people in a special way. I can't wait to show off my fresh ideas, natural talent, and all the things I love doing in a professional acting role.

Thank you for considering me for this opportunity. I am really excited to share my skills and experiences in the entertainment world.

Bye for now,

Madison Payne