

My name is Charlie Palmer. I am 10 years old. I want to be in the industry because I enjoy performing and working with other people on set and stage. I have fun with my friends singing and acting to make a memorable experience for the audience.