Dear Sir or Ma'am:

I'm Eliana, an eight-year-old firecracker from Beverly, MA! My energy is boundless, and I light-up every room I enter with my wild and colorful personality. As a natural leader and social butterfly, I make friends easily and am not afraid to step outside my comfort zone and try new things. Whether it's pretend-play in stories I make up, singing while practicing my piano or acting-up a character with wild emotions, I've always loved everything theatrical, making all sorts of funny voices and dramatic intonations to entertain people for as long as I can remember.

The entertainment industry has always captivated me. I dream of using my playful spirit, creativity, and artistic natural talents to connect with audiences and leave a positive mark on the world! Commercials and TV shows hold a special appeal, as I want to inspire others and spark deep emotions through storytelling. My competitive spirit and academic excellence fuel my drive to excel, while my deep empathy allows me to connect with human beings, animals, and characters in stories on a profound level. I believe this unique blend of qualities makes me a perfect fit for the vibrant world of entertainment.

I look forward to exploring the amazing world of acting with you! Please take a chance to meet with me via an online platform of your choice, I promise you won't regret it!

Excitedly,

Eliana Gillot
