
Banks Pittman

Child Actor

Hello,

I'm 10 years old and excited to introduce myself. I'm a keen reader, gamer, and I enjoy playing pretend with my brother. The stories of characters and influential people fascinate me, and I take pleasure in researching them further. I'm convinced of the power of laughter and am always searching for a good joke. My ambition is to have a career in the entertainment industry, spreading joy and happiness. I've always imagined myself as an actor, and I'm now taking the first steps towards turning my vision into a reality.

Sincerely,

Banks Pittman
