Jasper is an empathetic old soul who loves candy. He makes friends easily, especially with adults. Without fear or consequence, Jasper will spark a conversation with anyone. In school, teachers find him charismatic. As an athlete, he is strong willed and competitive; always looking to challenge himself (and others). Gifted with an uncanny memory, Jasper can absorb, learn, and apply information swiftly. This ability has led to success in the classroom, sports, and varying types of puzzles (Wordle, Connections, Phonenumble, etc.).

Jasper became interested in acting while watching classic movies with his family. Home Alone is what triggered his pursuit into entertainment. He wishes he could play the part of Kevin Mccallister. He is constantly jumping into character and pretending to be someone else. Jasper loves horror movies. The SCREAM franchise is his go-to when there is nothing enticing to watch. Jasper hopes to someday be cast in a horror film and to be the reason for your next jump scare.
