

Hello! My name is Luke Yan and I turned 7 on June 19th, 2024. I've been a big TV and movie buff for a long time, and I love to make my own videos acting out my favorite characters on YouTube. My favorite is "Titan Speakerman". I also make my own costumes for these videos including the head-helmets. When I found out I could make money doing this stuff, well that was the icing on the cake!

My Mom says I'm a happy, social kid and I came out that way. She worked in the TV industry for a while so I've been on sets, and have seen control rooms and cameras before. I was in a promo at her station! My dogs have also been in commercials. I'm really good at entertaining myself while I wait as long as I have food, drink and something to watch (and my Mom)!
