

Clayton Simpson - Future Star

Columbus, Ohio

Dear Talent Scouts and Industry Professionals,

My name is Clayton Simpson, and I'm a 9-year-old with big dreams and an even bigger personality. Ever since I can remember, I've loved to entertain people-whether it's by making them laugh, striking a pose, or performing for friends and family. Acting is my passion, and my ultimate goal is to follow in the footsteps of icons like Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson and Kevin Hart, bringing joy and inspiration to audiences around the world.

What sets me apart is my dedication, natural talent, and love for storytelling. I've trained in acting and completed a showcase where I received great feedback and interest from agencies. Whether it's comedy, drama, or something in between, I put my heart into every role. I'm excited to work hard, learn, and make a lasting impression in the entertainment industry.

Thank you for considering me for opportunities. I can't wait to bring my energy, talent, and passion to the screen!

Sincerely,

Clayton Simpson
