Dear Whom May Concern,

My name is Hunter Lang Xiong. I am 10 years old. I live in a small town called Winton, in California. I am writing to inform you of my interest and passion for performing. Acting, singing, dancing, and impersonating lines are a natural thing to me and I have been doing it since I was a baby. I enjoy being in the spotlight making people laugh and smile. When I am in front of a camera, on stage or in the center of attention, I feel more like myself and I become more confident. The families and friends who watched me growing up have enjoyed my gift and talent. I want to share that feeling and joy with the world.

I have had some experiences in musical dance theater from attending Merced Playhouse's Performing Arts Program for two years. I have done auditions to get my roles in 3 plays and was selected to be in multiple roles in each play here in our local cities. My main role for Rudolph Rednose Reindeer, I was Coach Comet, and also as Weatherman and Magi. For Newsies, my main role was Police Chief and other two roles were as a Scab and Newsie. My local plays are for public audiences and schools of more than 200 people. All the shows I have been in were paid-to-see shows and for all ages. I have had backstage, dress rehearsals, tech-rehearsals experiences and in doing so, I witnessed the hard work and dedication it takes to make it successful. My experiences and roles were so much fun and I learned a lot to help prepare me for a bigger role.

My auditions for Talent Auditions have enrolled me to work with celebrity coaches on acting techniques that would help me in the real world. Some of my awesome celebrity coaches were Ryan Kelly, Larry VanBuren Jr., Jimmy Bellinger, and Phillip Galinsky. They trained me on what an acting workshop is, what are basic acting principles, introducing me to acting, improvisation, tongue twisters, voice-over, and commercial tips. My coaches also helped me with my slate, monologue, dress rehearsal, resume, headshots, showcasing, and professional marketing. I had a chance to meet and showcase to agents and managers from big agencies.

I look forward to discussing my roles and my qualifications with you in more detail soon. I am confident that I meet the qualifications and requirements for this role. You can reach me via telephone or email listed above. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Hunter Lang Xiong
