Hello, my name is Krishna Patel. I'm 14 years old and live in Rosenberg, Texas. I am currently in the 8th grade, and in my third year of playing club volleyball. I love to cook and bake, but a grilled cheese sandwich is as high as I can go. I have gotten the chance to travel to many places and would love to continue to see all the diverse cultures and try many different foods around the world.

I wish to succeed in the entertainment industry because I would love for families to watch TV together and bond from the shows, I am a part of, while laughing together and building connections. I love to make people laugh and would like to do this to spread joy to other people around the globe.
