Dear to whom it may concern,

Hello, my name is Adilynn Moore, I am eight years old, and I am in my third year of Elementary school. I am just now getting my feet wet with my acting and performing career.

My mom asked me why acting interests me, I told her when I watch some of my favorite shows, I think about how cool it would be to be in their shoes; to travel, meet new friends, stay in hotels and be on tv, oh and eat.

In my free time, I love being a part of my local Girl Scout troop, pretending my cat is my son, and exploring outside (riding my bike, smashing rocks with my mom's hammer and singing while dancing)

I am excited to have the opportunity to learn and land my first job and beyond. I can't wait to blow you away with my personality and look forward to hopefully meeting you.

Thank you kindly,

Adilynn Moore
